

Intrinsic Value¹

Hyla Howe²

I see you.

I see you for what you are - for who you are.
While the world struggles to understand you,
they don't see the impact that they are already having.
They argue about whether your life is worth our sacrifices.

It's hard for me to watch.

It's hard for me to listen.

It's hard for me to understand how they don't just see your beauty, and how it is not enough.

I don't know how to explain this to them.

I know that your greatest value is your existence.

We may never meet,

but my life will be affected often by the ripples that you create.
And I will find happiness each day, just knowing that you exist.
